(1) (a) Subject to subsection (2), where a resident company carries on business through a controlled foreign company and the Director-General considers that the non-distributed income of the controlled foreign company arises from non-genuine arrangements which have been put in place for the essential purpose of obtaining a tax benefit, that income shall be deemed to form part of the chargeable income of the resident company.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a) –

- (i) an arrangement or a series thereof shall be regarded as non-genuine to the extent that the controlled foreign company would not own the assets or would not have undertaken the risks which generate all, or part of, its income if it were not controlled by a company where the significant people functions, which are relevant to those assets and risks, are carried out and are instrumental in generating the controlled company's income;
- (ii) "tax benefit" means the avoidance or postponement of the liability to pay income tax or the reduction in the amount thereof.

(2) (a) This section shall not apply to a controlled foreign company where in an income year –

- (i) accounting profits are not more than EUR 750 000, and non-trading income is not more than EUR 75 000;
- (ii) accounting profits amount to less than 10 per cent of its operating costs for the tax period; or
- (iii) the tax rate in the country of residence of the controlled foreign company is more than 50 per cent of the tax rate in Mauritius.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a)(ii), the operating costs shall not include the cost of goods sold outside the country where the entity is resident for tax purposes and payments to associated enterprises.

(3) The income under subsection (1)(a) shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purpose of this section.

(5) In this section –

“associated enterprise” means –

- (a) an entity in which the company holds directly or indirectly a participation in terms of voting rights or capital ownership of 25 per cent or more or is entitled to receive 25 per cent or more of the profits of that entity;
- (b) an individual or entity which holds directly or indirectly a participation in terms of voting rights or capital ownership in the company of 25 per cent or more or is entitled to receive 25 per cent or more of the profits of the company, where an individual or entity holds directly or indirectly a participation of 25 per cent or more in the company and one or more entities, all the entities concerned, including the company, shall also be regarded as associated enterprises;

“controlled foreign company” –

- (a) means a company –
 - (i) which is not resident in Mauritius; and
 - (ii) in which more than 50 per cent of its total participation rights are held directly or indirectly by the resident company referred to in subsection (1) or together with its associated enterprises; and
- (b) includes a permanent establishment of the resident company.

- (b) whose gross income in an income year does not exceed 10 million rupees; and
- (c) whose gross income from sources, other than those specified in the Thirteenth Schedule, does not exceed 400,000 rupees.

111V. Election to pay presumptive tax

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Sub-part, a small enterprise may, by irrevocable notice, on or before the due date for the filing of its return of income, elect to pay a presumptive tax at the rate of one per cent of its gross income.

(2) Where a small enterprise has made an election under subsection (1), it shall submit a return to the Director-General not later than the due date for the filing of the return under sections 112, 116 and 119, as the case may be, specifying such particulars as the Director-General may determine and at the same time pay the presumptive tax payable in accordance with the return, after offsetting any tax deducted at source under section 111B.

(3) Where a small enterprise has made an election under subsection (1), it shall not be entitled to claim any deduction, Income Exemption Threshold, relief or allowance under Sub-parts B, C, D or E of Part III or Sub-part C of Part IV, as the case may be.

111W. Penalty for late payment

Sections 122 and 122D shall apply in all respects where a small enterprise fails to pay the presumptive tax in accordance with section 111V.

111X.Assessment and recovery proceedings

(1) Where a person has submitted a return under section 111V, Parts IX, X and XI shall, subject to this section, apply with such modifications, adaptations and exceptions as may be necessary.

(2) Where it is found that a small enterprise eligible for an election under section 111V has underdeclared its gross income and the undeclared amount when aggregated to the declared gross income does not exceed 10 million rupees, the Director-General may impose presumptive tax on the undeclared gross income.

(x) in section 124, by adding the following new subsection –

(4) (a) Notwithstanding section 64 of the Banking Act, section 14(7) of the Companies Act, the Data Protection Act 2017 or section 44(6) of the Financial Services Act, nothing in subsection (1) shall prevent the Judge in Chambers, upon application being made to him by the Director-General, from making an order requiring a person to give the Director-General information for the purpose of enabling the Director-General to comply with a request for the exchange of information under an arrangement made pursuant to section 76.

(b) An order under paragraph (a) shall not be made unless the Judge is satisfied that –

(i) a person has failed to comply with subsection (1) within the time fixed by the Director-General; and

(ii) the order is necessary to enable the Director-General to comply with a request for the exchange of information under an arrangement made pursuant to section 76.

(c) An order under paragraph (a) shall specify the delay within which a person shall give information to the Director-General.
