The Prime Minister: Mr Deputy Speaker, Sir, if I may be allowed, I would like to say a few words about the newly elected fifth President of the Republic of Mauritius, hon. Rajkeswur Purryag.

Hon. Rajkeswur Purryag, who is more familiarly known as Kailash Purryag, is a person who embodies all the qualities and competence befitting the highest office of the land.

Mr Deputy Speaker, Sir, hon. Rajkeswur Purryag was born on 12 December 1947 in a poor family. His, was an uphill struggle. From very humble beginnings, he is today called upon to become the Head of State of the Republic of Mauritius.

It is a reminder, Mr Deputy Speaker, Sir, no matter where you start in life, if you possess character and endowed with discipline and an unyielding belief in your convictions and persevere against all the odds, then you will always climb over adversity.

It is, therefore, fitting that we should be honouring someone who has spent his whole life devoted to the selfless service of our people.

Hon. Rajkeswur Purryag has an impressive profession and political track record. His career is also indicative of his belief in self-development and the human spirit's capacity to overcome all obstacles. He became an Attorney at Law in 1973 and was elected to the Legislative Assembly for the first time in 1976. He has occupied the following Ministerial responsibilities with zeal, distinction and dedication -

- Minister of Social Security from January 1980 to June 1982.
- Minister of Health from January 1984 to January 1988.
- Minister of Economic Planning and Information and Telecommunications from December 1995 to July 1997.
- Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Trade from July 1997 to September 2000.
- He has made an invaluable contribution in all fields of national endeavour in a spirit of service for higher causes.
- He has been Speaker of the National Assembly since July 2005, and has presided over the deliberations of the House in the greatest tradition of fairness and objectivity.

Hon. Rajkeswur Purryag has always discharged his duties of his various functions with an acute sense of responsibility and competence of the highest order. It is my living sentiment that hon. Rajkeswur Purryag will uphold the standard of the presidency with a decorum that his Office demands. With his courage and foresight and the experience of a rich and illustrious career, he is destined to play a significant role in the shaping of the future of Mauritius and the broader goals of peace and welfare.

Mr Deputy Speaker, Sir, on behalf of all the Members of the National Assembly and in my own name, I wish to convey to hon. Rajkeswur Purryag, Mrs Anita Purryag, their daughter and all the members of his family our most sincere congratulations.

(Applause)
