MR SPEAKER - ELECTION

The Clerk: In accordance with the provisions of section 32 of the Constitution and of Standing Order 7 of the Standing Orders and Rules of the National Assembly, the House will now proceed to the election of a Speaker.

(At this stage, the Mace is brought into the House by the Serjeant-at-Arms and is laid near the Table)

I will, therefore, invite two hon. Members to move and to second the election of a Member present in this Assembly, or otherwise, to be nominated to the office of Speaker and to take the Chair of the House as such.

The Prime Minister: Clerk of the National Assembly, in accordance with the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution and Standing Order 7 of the Standing Orders and Rules of the National Assembly, I move that Mr Rajkeswur Purryag, GCSK, GOSK, be elected Speaker of the House.

Although this is a procedural motion, it is customary to say a few words on the person I am proposing to be Speaker of the House.

Mr Purryag, as hon. Members know, was the Speaker of the House from 12 July 2005. Being Speaker of the House is a very demanding job requiring many qualities among which are impartiality, authority, a sense of fairness as well as a sense of humour.

Mr Purryag has shown that he has all these qualities in abundance. Furthermore he has himself been a Member of this august Assembly for many years, starting as a backbencher in 1976 and occupying several ministerial posts culminating in that of Deputy Prime Minister.

In recognition for his service to the country, he was elevated to the rank of GOSK in 1998 and to the rank of GCSK in 2009. He clearly has a vast experience in the workings of the National Assembly and it is, therefore, fitting that he should continue as Speaker of the House.

With these words, I move that Mr Purryag be elected Speaker of this august Assembly.

The Leader of the Opposition rose and seconded.

The Clerk: As there appears to be no other counter proposal, I shall declare Mr Rajkeswur Purryag, GCSK, GOSK, present in the House, elected to the Chair and I invite him to come to the upper step to make the affirmation, in the first instance, and then to take the Chair.

(The House having called Mr R. Purryag to the Chair, he proceeds to the upper step of the Chair.)

Mr Purryag then made and subscribed before the Assembly the Oath of Solemn Affirmation prescribed in Schedule 3 of the Constitution and signed the Roll of Membership.

Mr Speaker: (Standing on the upper step)

Hon. Members, I am deeply honoured by the renewed trust the House has placed in me.

Hon. Members, I wish to thank the hon. Prime Minister and Leader of the House for his kind thoughts and for having proposed me anew as Speaker of the House. I also thank the hon. Leader of the Opposition for having seconded the motion once again for a second time.

In accordance with custom, I am pledging to submit myself to the will of the House and to continue to uphold the dignity, serenity and decorum it rightfully deserves and the respect it commands.

Hon. Members, I have had the great privilege of serving this House for the past 5 years. I am therefore fully aware of the exacting tasks that await me ahead. I have, however, no doubt that I can rely on your continued support and understanding in the discharge of my responsibilities.

I wish to reassure the House that impartiality and understanding will be my guiding principles in the conduct of the business of the House.

In the same breath, fairness in ensuring that the rights of all parties are protected and upheld at all times in the House will be my overriding concern.

Of course, as has been the practice during my last mandate, I will always be available to provide such advice and guidance as hon. Members may require, especially the newly elected Members.

Before I take the chair, I wish to reiterate my deep appreciation and thanks for the trust and confidence of the House in electing me as Speaker of this august Assembly. I remain convinced that I will not falter in my duties and I will be able to stand up to your expectations.

I also wish to pay tribute to the Clerk and the staff for their continued loyalty and devotion to the House.

I thank you for your attention.

(Applause)

(Mr Speaker then takes the Chair)

(The Mace which is, up to that time, near the Table, is placed upon the Table by the Serjeant-at-Arms).

DEPUTY SPEAKER - ELECTION

The Prime Minister: Mr Speaker, Sir, in accordance with the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution and Standing Order 7 of the Standing Orders and Rules of the National Assembly, I move that the hon. Third Member for Flacq and Bon Accueil, Mr Prithvirajsing Roopun, be elected Deputy Speaker of the House.

Mr Ganoo rose and seconded.

Mr Speaker: There being no other proposal, I declare the hon. Third Member for Flacq and Bon Accueil, Mr Prithvirajsing Roopun, elected Deputy Speaker of the Assembly. I offer him my sincere congratulations.

(Applause)

Mr Roopun: I wish first of all to congratulate you, Mr Speaker Sir, for having been re-elected to this high office.

I wish also to express my deepest thanks and gratitude to all Members, but more particularly to the hon. Prime Minister and Leader of the House for his trust.

I feel deeply honoured and privileged to be working alongside Mr Speaker, my senior distinguished member of the legal fraternity.

I give the assurance to all hon. Members that I will do my level best to conduct the affairs of this Assembly and uphold the dignity of the House.

I wish all hon. Members well and thank you once again.

I thank you for your attention.

DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES - ELECTION

The Prime Minister: Mr Speaker, Sir, in accordance with the provisions of Standing Order 7 of the Standing Orders and Rules of the National Assembly, I move that the hon. third Member for Port Louis South and Port Louis Central, Mr Abdullah Hafeez Hossen, be elected Deputy Chairman of Committees.

The Vice-Prime Minister, Minister of Finance and Economic Development (Mr P. Jugnauth) rose and seconded.

Mr Speaker: There being no other proposal, I declare the hon. third Member for Port Louis South and Port Louis Central, Mr Abdullah Hafeez Hossen, elected Deputy Chairman of Committees of the Assembly. I offer him my sincere congratulations.

Mr Hossen: Mr Speaker, Sir, I am deeply honoured to be elected by this august Assembly as Deputy Chairman of Committees. I can assure the House that I will discharge my responsibility to the best of my abilities and faithfulness.

I thank the hon. Members for the trust they have placed in me.

(Applause)
