- (a) shall hold office on such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit;
 - (b) shall not be deemed to hold public office by virtue only of his appointment under this section.
- (3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the Tourism Advisory Committee shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it deems fit.
- (4) The Tourism Advisory Committee shall meet –
- (a) at least once every 3 months; and
 - (b) at such time and place as the Chairperson may approve.
- (5) Eleven members shall constitute a quorum.

PART IV - LICENCES

23. Licensing of tourist enterprise

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, no person shall operate or carry out any tourist enterprise unless he holds a valid licence.

(2) No licensee shall assign or transfer his licence.

24. Application for licence and renewal

(1) An application for a licence shall be made on the prescribed form to the Authority in respect of any tourist enterprise which the applicant proposes to carry out or operate.

(2) A person or agent wishing to rent or advertise for rent any tourist accommodation shall provide to the Authority particulars of the accommodation which he intends to rent, together with a written agreement from the owner of such premises, where applicable.

(3) An application for the renewal of a licence in respect of any tourist enterprise shall be made to the Authority on the prescribed form.

(4) An application under this section may be made by the person who intends to carry out or operate a tourist enterprise, or his agent.

25. Issue and renewal of licence

(1) When considering an application made under section 24, the Authority-

(a) shall satisfy itself that the applicant -

(i) has adequate professional knowledge, skills, competence or experience in the proposed activity or in operating enterprises similar to the proposed enterprise; and

(ii) is a fit and proper person to hold a licence;

(b) shall consult such other person or body as it considers necessary;

(c) shall request the applicant to cause his application to be published in the Gazette and in 2 daily newspapers.

(2) The Authority may issue or renew a licence –

(a) on payment of the prescribed fee; and

(b) subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose.

26. Duration of licence

(1) A licence shall be valid from the date on which it is issued until the following 30 June unless it is revoked earlier.

(2) Where a licence is renewed more than 15 days after the date of its expiry, a surcharge of 10 percent of the licence fee shall be levied on renewal.

(3) Where a licence is not renewed within 90 days of the date of its expiry, the licence shall be deemed to be cancelled.

27. Display of licence

(1) Where the tourist enterprise is carried out or operated on fixed premises, the licensee shall display, in a conspicuous place at every place of business, a copy of its licence.

(2) In every other case, the licensee shall produce on demand its licence to an authorised officer.

28. Restriction on the issue of licence

No licence shall be issued to a person -

- (a) who has, within the 5 years preceding the date of application, been convicted of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or is a body corporate of which any director, manager or officer has been so convicted; or
- (b) who was, prior to the date of application, the holder of a licence which has been revoked by the Authority.

29. Refusal to renew or revocation of licence

(1) The Authority may refuse to renew, or may revoke, a licence where –

- (a) any information given to it by the licensee for the purpose of obtaining the issue of the licence was, at the time the information was given, false in any material particular;
- (b) the licensee has, without lawful excuse, failed to –
 - (i) comply with a requirement of this Act, a condition of the licence held by it, any Code of Practice issued under this Act or any direction issued under section 30(1)(b); or
 - (ii) pay any fee levied in accordance with this Act;
- (c) the licensee is convicted of an offence under this Act;
- (d) the licensee is convicted of an offence involving disorderly, immoral or violent conduct on premises to which the licence relates;
- (e) the licensee is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty;
- (f) the licensee ceases to occupy or manage the premises to which the licence relates;
- (g) the premises to which the licence relates cease, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Police, to be suitable for the purpose for which they were licensed; or
- (h) the licensee has transferred or assigned his licence;
- (i) it is in the public interest to refuse to renew or revoke the licence.

(2) Where the Authority has reasonable grounds to suspect that any licensee has transferred or assigned his licence or is only nominally the licensee, the Authority may refuse to renew or may revoke the licence.

(3) Where the Authority revokes a licence, no refund shall be made, nor any compensation paid in respect of the unexpired portion of the licence.

30. Suspension of licence

(1) Where the Authority considers that the revocation or cancellation of a licence is not appropriate, it may -

- (a) suspend a licence for such period as may be specified;
- (b) direct the licensee to take such corrective measures within such time limit as the Authority may specify.

(2) Where the licensee complies with a direction issued under subsection(1)(b), the Authority shall restore the licence.

31. Death, bankruptcy or insanity of licensee

Where a licensee dies or becomes bankrupt or insane, his widow, heir, or representative, as the case may be, may, with the consent of the Authority, carry on his business for the unexpired portion of the licence, either personally or by an agent approved by the Authority, and that person shall comply with all the conditions specified in the licence and with the provisions of this Act.

32. Duplicate of licence

(1) Where a licence is lost, defaced or rendered illegible, the Authority shall issue a duplicate licence on payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) Where a licence which has been lost is subsequently found, the licensee shall forthwith surrender any duplicate licence issued under subsection(1) to the Authority.

(3) Any person who knowingly retains, or has in his possession, an original licence and its duplicate shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

33. Forged licence

Any person who –

- (a) forges any licence;
- (b) is in possession of any forged licence;
- (c) affixes or displays a forged licence,

shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 25,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

34. Restriction on the number of licences

(1) Where the Minister is of the opinion that it is necessary in the public interest that the licences for any particular activity should be limited, he may for that activity direct the Authority in writing to limit the number of licences which may be issued.

(2) A direction given to the Authority under subsection (1) shall be binding for such district, town, village or other area and for such period as may be specified in the direction.

35. Cessation of business

Where a licensee does not intend to renew his licence, he shall –

- (a) notify the Authority of such intention not less than 3 months before the expiry of his licence;
- (b) cause to be published in 2 daily newspapers notice of his intention to cease business; and
- (c) surrender his licence to the Authority within 15 days of its expiry.

36. Appeal to Minister

- (1) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Authority with respect to -
- (a) the refusal to issue or renew a licence;
 - (b) any condition attached to a licence; or
 - (c) the suspension or revocation of a licence, may, within 30 days of the notification of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

- (2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall -
- (a) be lodged with the Permanent Secretary; and
 - (b) specify the reasons in support of the appeal.

PART V - MISCELLANEOUS

37. Records

Every licensee shall keep -

- (a) a record of every transaction which it makes in relation to its business; and
- (b) every record relating to its business for a period of not less than 5 years from the date of the transaction.

38. Submission of particulars

Every licensee shall submit to the Authority such particulars as may be required by the Authority in respect of its operations or activities.

39. Restriction on use of certain words

No person shall use the words "aparthotel", "B & B - Bed and Breakfast", "cottage", "cruise", "excursion", "guesthouse", "guide", "holiday", "hostel", "hotel", "inn", "lodge", "motel", "resort", "tour", "tourist" or "travel", in any business name and in any language, except with the written permission of the Authority.

40. Powers of Minister

The Minister may, in relation to the exercise of the powers of the Authority under this Act, give such general directions to the Authority, not inconsistent with this Act, as he considers necessary in the public interest and the Board shall comply with those directions.

41. Inspection

(1) The Permanent Secretary may authorise, in writing, any public officer to perform the duties specified in subsection (2).

(2) An authorised officer may at all reasonable times –

- (a) visit and inspect the business premises of any tourist enterprise;
- (b) require a tourist enterprise to produce any document or record kept by him for the purpose of his business; and
- (c) require a tourist enterprise to give him all reasonable assistance and provide all information for the purposes of an inspection.

(3) Where an inspection is carried out under subsection (2), an authorised officer may remove any document or record for a reasonable period for the purpose of an enquiry or to make copies or extracts therefrom.

(4) Where a document or record is removed under subsection (3), the authorised officer shall give to the operator, or any person in charge of the business premises, a receipt signed by him giving particulars of the document or record removed.

42. Powers of search and seizure

A Magistrate may, on oath or solemn affirmation of an authorised officer or police officer that there are reasonable grounds to believe that any place is being used as or for a tourist enterprise in contravention of this Act, issue a warrant to the authorised officer or police officer to enter with such assistance and by such force as is necessary, search the place and all persons found at the place and seize all documents and articles reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used in connection with the business of a tourist enterprise.

43. Restriction of execution

Notwithstanding any other enactment, no execution by levy or attachment of property or any other process shall be issued against the Authority in any suit against it.

44. Execution of documents

(1) Subject to subsection (2), all documents shall be deemed to be executed by or on behalf of the Authority if signed by the Chairperson or the Director.

(2) Every cheque of the Authority shall be signed by any 2 of the following persons -

- (a) the Chairperson;
- (b) the Director; or
- (c) such other person as may be appointed for that purpose by the Board.

45. Donations

Article 910 of the Code Napoleon shall not apply to the Authority.

46. Estimates

(1) The Authority shall, not less than 3 months before the beginning of every financial year, submit to the Minister a consolidated estimate of its expenditure and income.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister shall, before the beginning of the financial year, signify in writing his approval of the estimates.

(3) In signifying his approval under subsection (2), the Minister may -

- (a) approve part only of the expenditure under any item; and
- (b) direct the Authority to amend the estimates in respect of any item.

47. Auditing of accounts

The accounts of the Authority shall be audited by the Director of Audit.

48. Annual report

(1) The Authority shall, not later than 3 months after the close of a financial year, issue an annual report on its activities and audited accounts for that financial year.

(2) The annual report shall be submitted to the Minister for his approval and be laid subsequently before the Assembly.

49. Offences

(1) Any person who contravenes section 23 shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than double, not more than treble the licence fee which would have been payable in respect of the appropriate licence and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

(2) Any person who transfers or assigns a licence shall commit an offence and shall, without prejudice to the revocation of the licence under section 29, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 25,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

- (3) Any person who -
- (a) prevents any authorised officer or police officer from entering or inspecting any place where a tourist enterprise is being operated or carried out;
 - (b) fails to comply with any lawful request of an authorised officer or a police officer in the execution of his duty under this Act;
 - (c) refuses or neglects to give any information which may reasonably be required of him by the authorised officer or police officer and which he has power to give;
 - (d) in an application for a licence, wilfully makes any statement which is false in any material particular;
 - (e) fails to comply with any condition of his licence;
 - (f) wilfully provides false and misleading information in connection with a tourist enterprise to a tourist or any other person through an electronic medium or by way of public advertisement;
 - (g) fails to comply with a direction given under section 30(1)(b), shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 10,000 rupees and not more than 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(4) Any person who commits an offence under this Act shall, on conviction, be liable, where no special penalty is provided, to a fine not exceeding 25,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

50. Jurisdiction

Notwithstanding –

- (a) section 114 (2) of the Courts Act; and
- (b) section 72 (5) of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, a Magistrate shall have jurisdiction to try any offence under this Act and may impose any penalty provided by this Act.

51. Exemptions

Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Minister may make regulations in respect of the hours of business of a tourist enterprise.

52. Tourist site

The Minister may, by regulations, designate any area which is predominantly visited by tourists as a tourist site and provide for the regulation of activities being carried out within that area.

53. Regulations

- (1) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Any regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for -
 - (a) the levying of fees and the payment of charges and surcharges;
 - (b) standards to be maintained by a tourist enterprise;
 - (c) insurance to be taken out by a tourist enterprise;
 - (d) special terms and conditions for tourist activity in the outer islands of Mauritius;
 - (e) the amendment of the Schedule; and
 - (f) the operations of tour operators and travel agents.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Rodrigues Regional Assembly may make regulations applicable to the Island of Rodrigues for the purposes of this Act.

54. Transitional provisions

(1) Notwithstanding section 23, any licence issued under the Tourism Act 2002 and Travel Agent and Tour Operators Act 2001 in respect of any tourist enterprise which has not expired at the commencement of this Act shall remain valid after this Act comes into operation, on the same conditions as if this Act had not come into operation.

(2) Any proceedings pending immediately before the commencement of this Act to which the Tourism Authority established under the Tourism Act 2002, or the Travel Agents and Tour Operators Authority established under the Travel Agents and Tour Operators Act 2001, was a party may be continued as if the Tourism Authority established under this Act is the party to the proceedings.
